The Caldecott Medal

Awarded annually by the Association for Library Service to Children,
The American Library Association

In 1938, the first Caldecott Medal, donated by Frederic G. Melcher (1879-1963) was awarded to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children published in the United States during the preceding year. The name of Randolph Caldecott, the famous English illustrator of books for children, was chosen for the medal because his work best represented "joyousness of picture books as well as their beauty."
